Parametric Global Defensive Equity Fund - ZH4X (EUR)

ISIN: LU2660285474, Base Currency: EUR

A fund of Morgan Stanley Investment Funds

The fund is managed by MSIM Fund Management (Ireland) Limited, part of the Morgan Stanley group.

OBJECTIVES AND INVESTMENT POLICY

Objective

- To provide a defensive equity exposure that is expected to provide favourable risk adjusted performance relative to the MSCI All Country World Index (the "Benchmark") over the long term.

Main Investments

- The Fund primarily invests in ETFs, cash equivalents and in Financial Derivative Instruments ("FDI"), specifically call and put options.

Investment Policy

- To generate returns through the receipt of option premiums as well as returns on the equity index positions held and the cash equivalents held. The option strategy is in respect of UCITS eligible equity indices which will cumulatively provide exposure to the markets similar to those comprised in the Benchmark. The Fund expects to outperform where equity markets are flat or falling and may underperform in strong equity markets.
- The Fund will invest in a base portfolio that is generally comprised of: (i) equity index positions normally comprised of regulated equity index UCITS ETFs; and (ii) cash-equivalent positions, which will consist primarily of Fixed Income Securities with a maximum remaining maturity of one year or less.
- The Investment Adviser does not integrate sustainability risks into its investment decisions as they are not relevant given the investment strategy of the Fund.
- The Fund measures its performance against the Benchmark and references the Benchmark for the purpose of defining the countries it will invest into. The Fund is actively managed and is not designed to track the Benchmark. Therefore, the management of the Fund is not constrained by the composition of the Benchmark.

Other Information

- The Fund may invest up to 30% of its assets in investments that do not meet the above criteria e.g. fixed income securities.
- The Fund may invest in derivatives, financial instruments which take their value indirectly from other assets, for investment or efficient portfolio management purposes. They rely on other companies to fulfil contractual obligations and carry more risk. Refer to the prospectus ('Financial Derivative Instruments' section) for more details.
- This is a partially hedged share class. It aims to hedge a portion of the currency risk by hedging a portion of the Fund's exposure of USD cash to the non-USD partially hedged class.
- Income may be paid quarterly in cash or additional shares.

Buying and selling shares

- Investors may buy and sell shares on any Luxembourg business day.

RISK AND REWARD PROFILE

The risk and reward category shown is based on historic data.

- Historic figures are only a guide and may not be a reliable indicator of what may happen in the future.
- As such this category may change in the future.
- The higher the category, the greater the potential reward, but also the greater the risk of losing the investment. Category 1 does not indicate a risk free investment.
- The fund is in this category because it invests in company shares and the fund's simulated and/or realised return has experienced medium rises and falls historically.
- The fund may be impacted by movements in the exchange rates between the fund's currency and the currencies of the fund's investments.

This rating does not take into account other risk factors which should be considered before investing, these include:

- The fund relies on other parties to fulfill certain services, investments or transactions. If these parties become insolvent, it may expose the fund to financial loss.
- There may be an insufficient number of buyers or sellers which may affect the funds ability to buy or sell securities.
- There are increased risks of investing in emerging markets as political, legal and operational systems may be less developed than in developed markets.
